Somewhere in Zubrowka, before WWII wiped that country off the map, sits the Grand Budapest Hotel; at its heart is concierge M. Gustave (Ralph Fiennes). With faithful lobby boy Zero Moustafa (newcomer Tony Revolori) at his side, he keeps things running smoothly - until a priceless painting that could tip the balance of a family fortune arrives at the hotel. Writer-director Wes Anderson has assembled an all-star cast for this comedy-drama, with Oscar winners F. Murray Abraham, Adrien Brody and Tilda Swinton joining such regular collaborators as Bill Murray, Jason Schwartzman and Owen Wilson. Discussion following with Wes Anderson.

The threat posed by N azi Germany was very real when director Ernst Lubitsch took aim at the Third Reich in this now-classic comedy. Jack Benny and Carole Lombard (in her final role) are married actors in Warsaw when Hitler's troops invade; they and the rest of their company must give the performances of their lives to save pilot Robert Stack and the Polish resistance from N azi spies. No less a comedic great than Mel Brooks put his stamp of

This acclaimed comedy-adventure from Walt Disney Animation Studios is one-of-a-kind! Led by teen prodigy Hiro Hamada, the Big Hero 6 team consists of five talented humans and one king-sized inflatable robot named Baymax. Their mission: To keep the city of San Fransokyo safe from a rogue robotics expert. There's plenty of action here, but it's the strong central bond between Hiro and Baymax that gives this box office hit a big heart as well as big

Among the most remarkable films of recent memory, BOYHOOD was shot over a 12-year period to follow the fractured family life of Mason Evans Jr. (Ellar Coltrane) as he moves from grade school to college. As his divorced parents, Patricia Arquette and Ethan Hawke are equally affecting despite taking different approaches to raising kids. Impressive as the logistical hurdles Linklater and his team surmounted, what's most memorable about this coming-of-age drama is how right it gets the little moments of this boy's life - a sad stare as mom drives him away from his hometown for the last time, an encouraging note passed to him at his new school, or an early morning

The last day of class at a Texas high school in 1976 brings together jocks, nerds and stoners in this cult teen comedy set to a classic rock soundtrack. Jason London, Ben Affleck, Milla Jovovich and Renée Zellweger are among the students gearing up for the summer; Matthew McConaughey is unforgettable as the older guy who still walk with a girlfriend. Discussion following with filmmaker Richard Linklater.
