Ford Motor Company Fund

In its continued support of GRAMMY Foundation programs, Ford Motor Company Fund is awarding $5,500 to schools in Spokane, Wash.; Tucson, Ariz.; and Los Angeles, that win needs-based “Enterprise” awards under the GRAMMY Signature Schools® program. Since launching the partnership, in 2008, Ford and the GRAMMY Foundation have awarded Enterprise awards to 15 schools throughout the country in addition to Ford’s support of the national GRAMMY In The Schools program.

“Ford Motor Company Fund is proud to partner with the Grammy Foundation to continue our decades-long commitment to education”, said Jim Vella, president, Ford Motor Company Fund and Community Services. “Schools with music programs have higher test scores and graduation rates. Supporting music programs in schools is just another way Ford seeks to enhance and expand opportunities for young people throughout the U.S.”

“Our GRAMMY Signature Schools program is making a real difference in the lives of young people in public high school music programs across the country,” said Neil Portnow, president and CEO of The Recording Academy and the GRAMMY Foundation. “With the generous support of our partners, we’ve been able to grow this program’s reach, and further the GRAMMY Foundation’s commitment to fostering excellence in music education. That’s why we are proud to work with an organization that is committed to music like the Ford Fund.”

It is very important that well known and large companies do something for the community. Everyone is better off by that!

It's pretty nice of Ford to do this. I wonder how something like this can be done for other organizations.
