The film by writer-director Xavier Dolan, follows the teen with Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder and his widowed single mother. Pilon's major role catapults him into a short list of young actors to keep an eye on for future success. Past Breakthrough Performance Awards have been given to stars in the past such as Rupert Friend for Mrs. Palfrey at the Claremont, Arie Verveen for Caught, Michael B. Jordan in Fruitvale Station, Sophie Nelisse in The Book Thief and Quevenzhane Wallis in Beasts on the Southern Wild. Award-winning journalist and filmmaker Sebastian Junger is being honored with the Humanitarian Award. He was co-director of the Academy Awardnominated documentary Restrepo, which was part of a trilogy that includes Korengal and The Last Patrol released this year. He also wrote books such as The Perfect Storm, Fire and A Death in Belmont and he won an Emmy for his coverage of the Afghanistan war. Junger co-directed Restrepo with journalist Tim Hetherington, who is a previous Humanitarian Award winner. Hetherington was killed two years ago while covering the civil war in Libya. Korengal and The Last Patrol pick up where Restrepo left off with the same men in the same valley, showing what war feels like and what it does to the young men who fight in it. It takes a step further into bringing the war into people's living rooms One of the subjects of the movies, Sgt. Aron Hijar, accepted the award for Junger when Restrepo won Best Documentary Feature at the Satellite Awards in 2010. Sgt. Hijar also accepted the Humanitarian Award for Hetherington the next year. The Humanitarian Award has also been presented to director Benh Zeitlin (Beasts of the Southern Wild) and actress Connie Stevens. The International Press Academy is a global association of professional entertainment journalists representing and digital media outlets. The IPA aspires to continually recognize all artistic achievement whose aim is entertain, enrich and enlighten, regardless of their chosen platform. The 19th annual Satellite Awards will be held on Sunday, February 15, 2015 at the InterContinental Hotel in Century City.
